

SARATOFF'S DEATH BLOCKS UPRISING

"Uncrowned King" Slain
For Appropriating Money
He Spent On Revolt

Popularity Throughout Bulgaria Caused Ferdinand To Order His Release.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—But for Boris Saratoff's assassination at Sofia, Bulgaria, December 11, there would have been fresh fighting in Macedonia in the spring.

Saratoff was organizing the campaign at the time he was killed, and his plans for rebellion against the Sultan never failed. What he cost Turkey in money and lives would almost have paid for the territory he sought.

More than once as many as 10,000 Turkish soldiers scoured the province for him. He carried a price of $7,500 on his head for years, and there is no doubt the Sultan would gladly have doubled the reward had he believed that by doing so he could have caught the "Uncrowned Macedonian King," as the rebel chieftain was called.

The story is current in Constantinople that Paniza, the assassin, was paid by the Turkish government to kill Saratoff.
The arch-rebel's enemies—and he had them even among his own countrymen—say he was slain for appropriating to his own use $100,000 contributed to the Macedonian fund. His friends reply that the money was honestly expended in preparations for next spring's uprising, and that friends and foes alike knew exactly how it had been used.

He was not only an ideal leader in his own country, but so well liked in Bulgaria that the popular outcry compelled Prince Ferdinand to release him on one occasion, when he had been arrested in Sofia and the government was talking of surrendering him to Turkey.

WEDS MAN SHE JILTED MANY, MANY YEARS AGO

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Mrs. Arabella J. Kenney, of Newark, N. J., who married yesterday at the Church of the Transfiguration to Charles J. Mann, whom she jilted in 1868.

When she broke the engagement nearly forty years ago and gave her hand to Mr. Kenney, Mr. Mann went West and made a fortune.

He came back this fall, offered his hand again and was accepted.

WEALTHY GIRL A NUN: TIRES OF SOCIAL LIFE

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Miss Marie Adelaide DeVilliers, who has a fortune of $2,000,000 in her own right and is a social favorite in New York and Philadelphia, has entered a convent at Crescent, Pa., as Sister Camille Marie.

The young woman is said to have reached the determination to enter the convent a month ago. She said she had tired of the life of a social favorite, and to flee from it, sought the convent's seclusion.

NO STRIKE VOTE, SAYS MORRISSEY

Denies Rumor That Railroad
Trainmen May Quit
Work.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—"All the sensational reports that we are counting a strike vote for Eastern railroad employees are untrue. I have denied them several times. The conductors and train-men have been voting on certain working condition and wage increases, and not one line in the proposition refers to a strike."

P. H. Morrissey, grand master of the Order of Railroad Trainmen, which has $3,000 members, made this statement tonight.

"The conductors and trainmen on Eastern lines are deciding to do just what has been done by railroad men in the West," continued Mr. Morrissey.
"It will require another day to count the vote. It is impossible to tell at this time what the result will be. There is nothing alarming in the situation."

President Garretson, of the conductors, made a similar statement. About 100,000 men are interested in the outcome. Should the proposition carry, they will be presented to the railroad managers when the general officers believe the time is opportune. "The present financial situation, it is said, will have some influence on the date for submitting the requests to the companies."

ALLEGED ABDUCTOR CAUGHT IN VIRGINIA

STANTON, Va., Dec. 28.—C. H.
James, the school teacher wanted in North Carolina for alleged bigamy and for the abduction of Lilly Midyette, of Manteo, N. C., is in jail here. He is charged with drunkenness.

As he was unable to secure the money for a fine of $5.35 he was remanded to jail. It is said that he was in jail Christmas Day and it is not known here how he gained his freedom. James has been here several days and is in a wretched condition. He has been telegraphing to Greenville, N. C., and to Shenandoah for money, but no one, apparently, will come to his rescue. The accused is about forty-five years old and is alleged to have two wives in North Carolina.

He confesses that he is the man wanted for the abduction of Miss Midyette, but maintains that the girl came with him of her own accord.

HIGHWAYMEN ROB MAN IN NINTH STREET GLARE

In true Western style Henry Jarvis, living at 1433 N. street northwest, was held up by two highwaymen about 7 o'clock Friday night on Ninth street, between D and E streets northwest, within a stone's throw of a crossing policeman at the corner of Ninth street and Pennsylvania avenue. Two watches, a pawn ticket for two watches, and some change were taken from him.

The police of the First precinct are investigating the case, but as yet no developments have been reported.

QUAKE CHANGES SEA BED: PORT CHANNEL DANGEROUS

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 28.—Recent earthquakes have so changed the bed of the Gulf of Campeche, especially just off the Yucatan coast that navigation has become exceedingly dangerous. The decrease in depth in the harbor channel to the port of Progreso amounts to several feet, making it impossible for vessels of deep draught to enter. A warning has been issued to navigators by the meteorological bureau.

SWISS SOLDIERS ON SKIS.

A detachment of French Alpine Chasseurs has within the last few days achieved a notable feat in traversing mountains on skis. The men were stationed at the winter post of Bourg Saint Maurice, and the foray was carried out under the command of Lieutenant Krug and Michel.

The party left Champloux in the morning, and in the evening had reached Albertville, after traversing the peak of the Cormet de Roseland and the Beaufort valley. The distance covered was thirty miles—London Globe.

STAY AT GOLDFIELD, ORDER TO TROOPS

January 2 Time Allowed Unless Special Legislative Session Is Called.

Orders were issued by the War Department yesterday and telegraphed to Goldfield, Nev., prolonging the stay of the troops there, under command of Colonel Reynolds. The orders to Colonel Reynolds to march from Goldfield December 29 were revoked. Just how long the troops will remain is a matter of conjecture, so far as the War Department is concerned.

In the correspondence relating to the removal or the keeping of the troops in Goldfield, made public at the White House yesterday, the President in his letter to Governor Sparks said that pending the calling of the Legislature of the State in special session, the troops would be allowed to remain five days longer, and that unless the session was called before the expiration of those five days the troops would be removed.

This extension was from the date of the telegram yesterday, December 28, consequently the time allowed is until January 2, two days longer than the original time.

Case Against Miners' Union To Come to Hearing Jan. 3 In the United States Court

CARSON CITY, Nev., Dec. 28.—Federal Judge Farrington today set January 3 for the hearing of the mine owners' petition for an injunction against the miners' union at Goldfield. He refused to issue a temporary restraining order, but announced that any act by the miners between now and the trial would result in the issuance of one.
Judge Farrington's decision caused jubilation in the ranks of the miners.
They declare they will make a showing before the court that will convince the judge no injunction is necessary.

SEEK AMERICAN REFUGE FROM ARMENIAN FAMINE

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—Additional advices from eastern Turkey and Armenia, received today by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, indicate that the famine already reported is more severe than was first supposed, and the tide of emigration to this country was never so strong as at present.

Secretary Hicks writes from Harpoot that upon returning to this city recently he met hundreds of Arabs and Armenians going in the direction of Samsoun, and eventually bound for America. All these persons were young or middle-aged, able-bodied men, representing the strongest element of the population in that country, and sufficiently well enough off to make the necessary "gift" to leave Turkey, and pay their passage to America.

It is estimated that 1,200 families have left the vicinity of Harpoot since last April and the number is constantly increasing.

MAMMOTH GOLD SHIPMENT COMES FROM BUENOS AYRES

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—With $800,000 gold on board, the steamship Himeria arrived in port today from Buenos Ayres. The gold, which was all in American eagles, was stored in thirty-two boxes. It is consigned to the National City Bank. Customs officials said it was the first time within their knowledge that so large an amount of gold was shipped to the United States from South America.

THE TEST OF FAITH.

They were cross-examining, in a Chicago court recently, a bookmaker who had been caught in the toils for playing some other game than his own. The chief substantiated district attorney was intent upon a conviction, however, and was doing his best, none too successfully, to shake the testimony of the defendant.

"You're sure of that?" he yelled, as the bookmaker stuck to the assertion that he did not suit the case of the State.
"Sure, I am certain," came the answer.

"You remember that you are under oath?"
"I do that."
"And you'd swear to this statement of yours?"
"Swear to it? Why, Mr. Lawyer and judge, your honor, I'd bet a hundred on it any day."

FITZGERALD STAYS WITH THE B. & O.

General Manager Who Resigned Gets Another Position.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 28.—It developed today that President George C. Murray, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, has decided to give Thomas Fitzgerald, who resigned today as general manager of the road, another position.

Mr. Fitzgerald, it is said, has decided to accept and will remain with the company, in whose service he has constantly been active for nearly forty-one years, rising all the way from the position of water boy to the place which he relinquished to-day.

Rumor has it that the reason for Mr.
Fitzgerald's resignation was differences between himself and George L. Potter, third vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio.

It is said Mr. Fitzgerald has received a very tempting offer from the Great Northern railroad. The nature of his new position has not been made public.

SENDS DEATH MESSAGE; WIFE ALIVE AND WELL

WINSTED, Conn., Dec. 28.—When Clarence Churchill, the young son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John Parkins, learned this afternoon that his father-in-law had a telegram from Hazelton, Pa., from his daughter (Churchill's wife) saying that she was alive and well and not to pay any attention to the rumors which were current, he remarked that he was glad she was alive and left the house.

Churchill had sent a telegram from Phillipsburg, N. J., that his wife was dead and wanted to send her body home, and said he had no money, and, after wiring an undertaker there to send the body, came here.

He admitted to the undertaker here that his wife was not dead, but Parkins ignorance of this, made all arrangements for his daughter's funeral.
Churchill's departure was opportune, for friends of Parkins had planned to tar and feather him tonight.

ASKS FOR A LIGHT; GETS POCKETBOOK, TOO

Warren Jefferson Davis, secretary to Representative Lassiter, was victimized last night while standing on the corner of Fourteenth and Euclid streets northwest, by a white man. Davis says that he was standing on the corner waiting for a car that would take him to the Gordon Hotel, where he is stopping.
When the man approached him to ask for a light from his cigar.

When he felt for his pocketbook in the car he discovered that it had been stolen. The purse contained several dollars.

ONLY NATURAL.

There is a stalwart negro in a town of Alabama whose naturally fine singing voice is the feature of the local colored church choir.

On one occasion, when the singer was suffering from a protracted illness, one of the deacons called to ascertain how the patient was "gittin' on."
"He's got an awful bad cough jest now," explained the singer's wife, with a mournful sigh.
"Well, dat's too bad, dat's too bad!" exclaimed the deacon, eating about for some means of consolation. Then a happy thought struck him. "Come to think of it," he added, "it ain't no wonder, wif dat strong voice he has pres'n' on his lungs! He's shore due to have a cough now 'n' then, ain't he?"
—Harper's Weekly.

SKIMMED MILK DIET FOR FAT FOLKS?

Physicians who are cautious and hard-headed prescribe a diet of skimmed milk for the reduction of fat. It is a sure, but in-portable method of cure. Other doctors advise to purify and flavor.
"He's got an awful bad cough jest
a mournful sigh.

PIGEONS WILL CARRY MESSAGE 1,200 MILES

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 28.—New Year greetings from Mayno, of Minneapolis, will be sent to the mayor of Boston by carrier pigeons. It is thought the birds can complete the journey of 1,200 miles in about forty-six hours.
The entire trip, however, will not be made by the same pigeons. Two birds will be liberated here, each having the message tied to its leg, and they will fly to their home town, Aurora, Ill.

There the message will be transferred to a bird that is to make the flight from Aurora to Philadelphia, where the message will be fastened to the pigeon which is expected to deliver it in Boston.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN COMES TO AID RUSSIA

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—A woman of mystery from Russia, who is supposed to be of noble birth, arrived in port today on the French liner, La Provence.
She was at once met by a delegation of Russians and hurried away from the pier, her destination being kept a secret.
The woman was booked on the steamship as Madame Maria P. Hotsold, but it was said that this was an assumed name and that she belonged to the nobility of Russia, but was working in behalf of the revolutionists. It was further declared by passengers on the liner who had spoken to her that she was a writer of great ability, a friend of Draxin Gorky, and that it was her intention to take up Gorky's work after his death.

She is about twenty-six years old, tall, and extremely handsome. She confirmed the report that Gorky is dying.

POPULATION OF CUBA PAST 2,000,000 MARK

Cuba is developing rapidly in agricultural population and agricultural products. This fact is shown by the recent census of the island. It can be made the subject, the report says, of an interesting analysis as soon as the population by districts is announced.

Reports received by the State Department from the American consul at Havana show a total population of 2-022,282, an increase of 50,437, or about 2.5 per cent, over the census of 1899.
These are the figures recently reported to the provisional government.

In the ratio of increase the Province of Pinar del Rio leads with 29 per cent, there being 240,281 population now, as compared with 172,083 in 1899. Oriente (Santiago de Cuba) comes next with 38 per cent, the population being 455,782, as against 327,716 in 1899.

Campaguey (Puerto Principe) is third, with 25 per cent increase, having a population of 117,432, as against 88,237 in 1899; Santa Clara is next, with 28 per cent, having now 467,597, and 356,537 in 1899.

Havana Province increased 23 per cent, the population totals being 518,524 in 1907 and 424,821 in 1899; and Matanzas is last with 18 per cent increase, having 235,596 in 1907, and 202,462 in 1899.
